A wise man once said: "Your reach should exceed your grasp—or what is heaven for?"

You, the Class of 1968, have reached for and accomplished enviable goals at the BIG "K". You have left a legacy for others to follow with your contribution of unexcelled academic achievements, your presentation of entertaining music and drama, your record of successful athletic teams, and your never-to-be-forgotten spirit of togetherness. What a grasp!

As you leave your high school days behind and enter into an adult society, may your determination of success prevail . . . reach high.

to everything there is a season,
and a time to every purpose under the heaven:
a time to be born,
and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
a time to kill,
and a time to heal;
a time to break down,
and a time to build up;
a time to weep,
and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn,
and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to get,
and a time to lose;
a time to keep,
and a time to cast away;
a time to rend,
and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
a time of love,
and a time of hate;
a time of war,
and a time of peace.

A time for contemplation . . .

A time for creation . . .

A time for employing past knowledge to meet present challenges,
A time for exploring the dark, undeveloped
abyss of the infinite human mind,
A time for probing great and unequalled thoughts

A time for developing oneself through own personal creations . . .

BUSINESS AND ENGLISH

Developing skills in typing, shorthand, and bookkeeping;
Endless striving for speed, accuracy, efficiency; Trying and trying again until the bewildering jumble of figures finally converges in the correct solution.
Student secretaries . . . lessening the burdens of teachers while becoming adapted to the machines and methods of the office.
Carbon paper, duplicators . . . inky fingers—
Applying knowledge to practical techniques . . .

Below: The importance of margins is demonstrated by Mr. Israel.

Below: Mr. Iagnemma illustrates that vocabulary words play an essential part in today's living. Above: Janice Steele augments her knowledge through concentration.

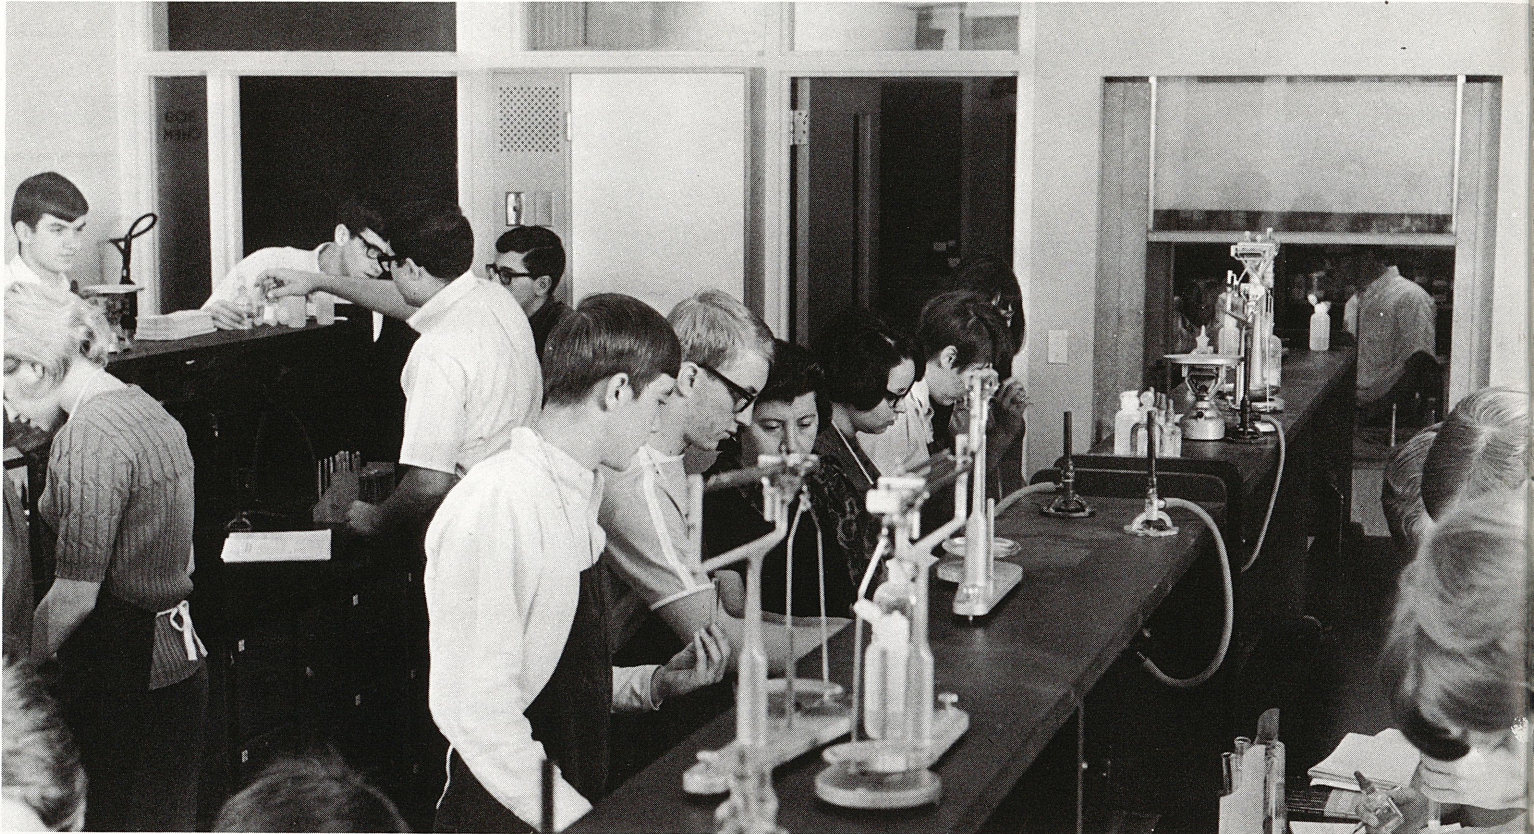

Above: Cindy Branthoover is given individual help on the fine points of composition by Mrs. Bartlebaugh. Below: Sue Smith and classmate receive practice in dramatization, a basic way of self-expression in the English language.

Teachers—imparting much more than the mere knowledge of grammar.
 Searching for originality, encouraging individuality.
 Students—trying to develop a uniqueness in their writing.
 Expressing ideas, defending opinions . . .
 Becoming familiar with Chaucer, Shakespeare, Emerson—
 Learning to appreciate Joyce, Eliot, Pasternak,
 All enabling us to communicate more fluently.

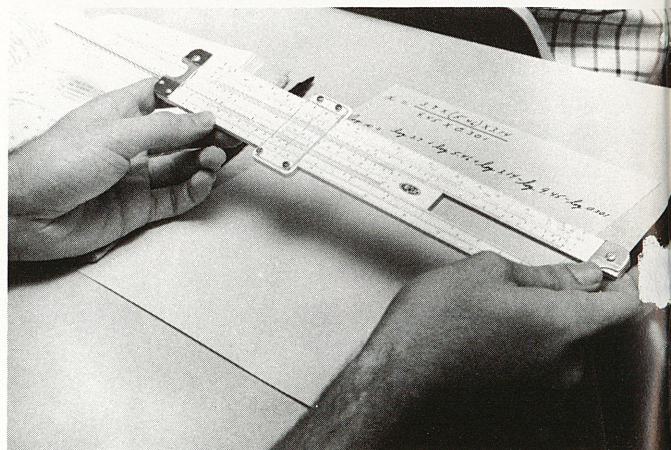

Confusion and jumble of an infinity of X's and Y's,
 Set, element, point, plane, line, aleph naught . . .
 Inverses, reverses, converses.
 Construction of angles and triangles—Lines converging and meeting in an inconceivably small point in space.
 Tedium of addition, subtraction, multiplication, division—
 trying and trying again
 The one-minute bell—a blank mind—still three more problems to do . . .
 Everything suddenly comes together, the clear image is one of mathematics—a language of precision and exactness, of infinity and abstractness . . .

The basic foundations of science are established through experimentation,
 "... the mother of all certainty."

Youthful hands develop skills in the wonders of mathematics.

MATHEMATICS SCIENCE

Right: Mr. Coffman explains another aspect of the mysteries of life.
Below: Mark Arteritano views the fascinating world which lies beneath the lenses of a microscope.

Elements, molecules, atoms,
 Shaky hands while pouring acid;
 Reasoning different reactions—
 Learning new terms:
 Chordata, Vectors, Avagadro's Hypothesis
 Dissecting with surgeon-like procedures:
 worms, frogs, fish.
 Spending unlimited time
 on take-home tests, homework, projects—
 All opening our minds to the many mysteries of science.

Right: Mrs. Emberg guides her students from the concept of a point to the legs of a triangle, to the logic of geometrics. Below: Dennis and Mark observe one of the basic laws of physics.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"Bonjour", "Buenas Aires", "Guten Tag" . . . beginning of removing the barriers of communications

Learning by repetition and association:

"Repeta" . . . a constant command.

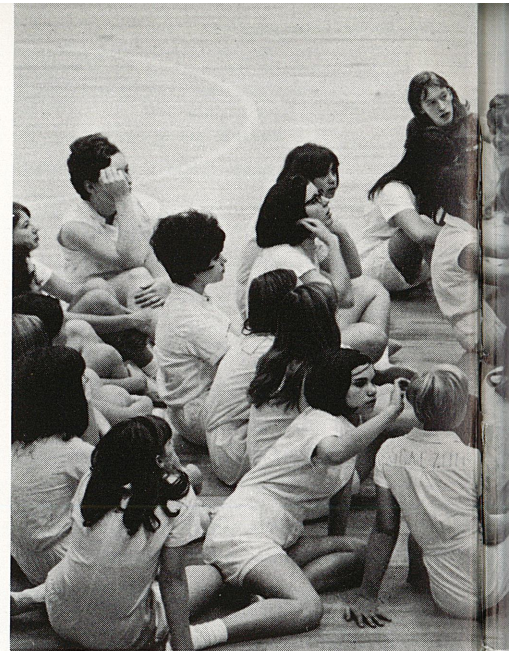

Puzzled faces often followed by "comprenez-vous"

Embarassing response to misinterpreted translations

Songs, games

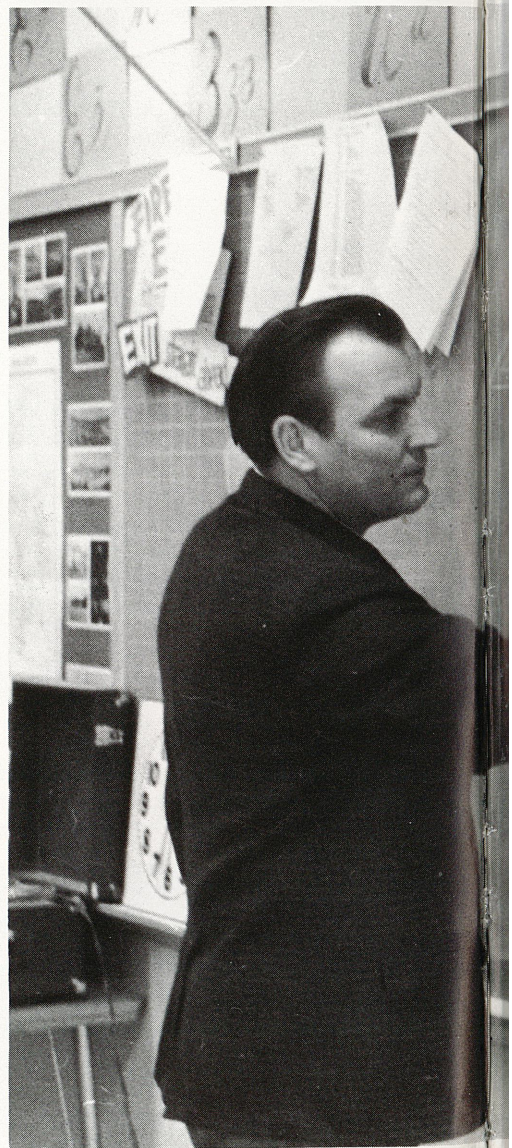

Dissonance of off-key voices trying to mimic the record's version of "Alouette".

One idea—one concept leading to another until full understanding is reached . . .

Above Right: A demonstration of the rules for the game is given by Miss Herbeck. Right: Through language, Mr. Egelsky forms a link between his students. Below: Mrs. Pugliese provides individual attention to Spanish Students.

Climbing a rope that seems to have no end
 Sit-ups, push-ups, pull-ups . . .
 Shaping the body to make the dreams of the mind a reality;
 Fifty yard dash, broad jump, shot-put, soccer, basketball . . .
 Exhausted by calisthenics, yet strengthened by the same.
 "Roll call," "Fall out," "Uniform check," "Class halt!"
 Achievement tests to show progress toward a healthier life
 Wrestling, tumbling, full bends . . .
 And then the long-awaited shower.

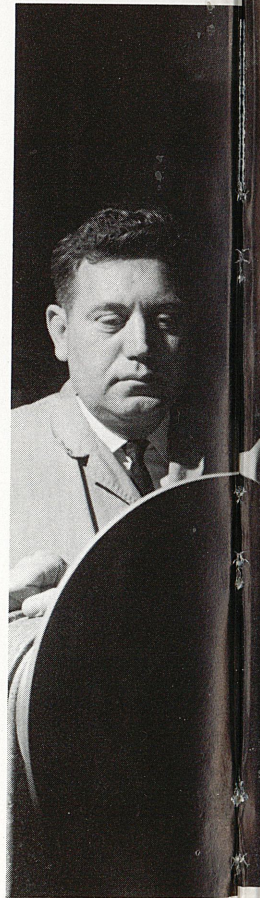

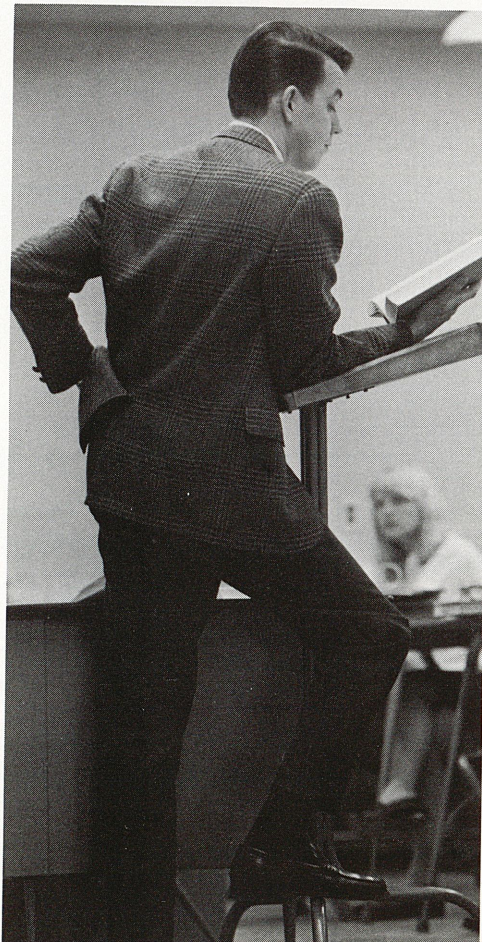

Right: Strength and endurance result in achievements for David Hill.

Learning of our forefathers' deeds and patriotism:
Wars, acts, crises—development.
Giving reports, discussing current events,
drawing and memorizing maps . . .
Studying geography and its effect on mankind—
Discovering the social and economical make-up of our nation . . .
Building a background on which political ideas and opinions are based.

SOCIAL STUDIES PRACTICAL ARTS

Above: Zachery Booker explains to his classmates the effect of geography on our nation and our lives. Below: By teaching young Americans, Mr. Hunter draws them closer to an understanding of other peoples of the world. Right: The many skills of a craftsman are perfected in his students by Mr. Tarosky.

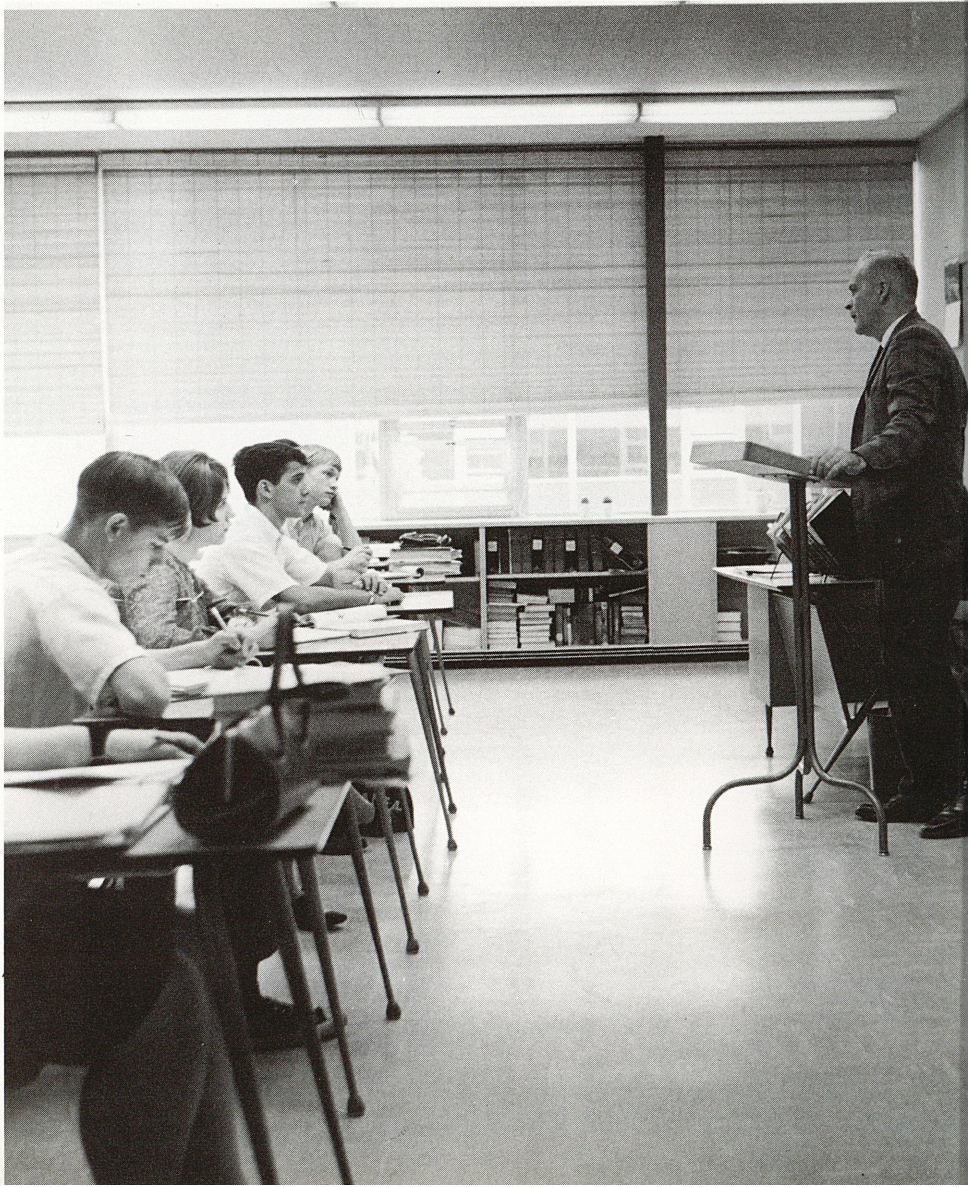

Charles Edmonds imprints on his canvass the beauty of nature.

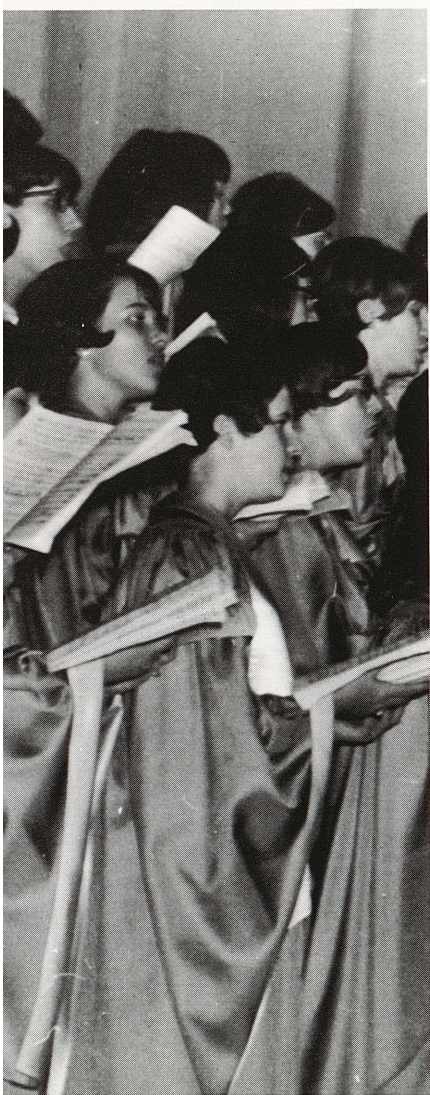

Skills developed, creativity brought forth Tantalizing aromas; grinding saws; stirring marches;
pianissimo, acapella, fast cadence—the "Big K".
Shading and shadows enhance still-lives,
Screeching, whirring lathes, odors of turpentine and shellac.

A sigh of relief as a beautiful, golden-crusted cake, held by loving hands, emerges from the fragrant warmth of the oven, All facets of the arts require practice and dwelling work but provide stimulation, experience, and triumphant works of beauty.

Right: By discussion of the problems of democracy, Mr. Meighan may inspire his students to someday solve them.

A TIME FOR DEVOTION . . . A TIME FOR RECREATION . . .

A time for devoting oneself to the needs of others,
A time for forgetting the formality of the classroom and grasping knowledge for personal satisfaction,
A time for seeking experiences and rich rewards
for future profit,
A time for putting forth ideas, concepts, actions . . .

CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

CAMPUS STAFF

Preparing a record for posterity—a pictorial history of a year at the "Big K",
Beginning with the basics of a "dummy sheet", Drawing and modifying layouts in order to make them pleasing to the eye,
Cropping pictures to fit their allotted spaces,
Progressing to the perfection of a "3-R form",
Relating the story of Kiski through literary means,
Editing, proofreading, typing . . .
Photography, deadlines, identification,
Soliciting patrons and encountering financial headaches—Piecing together all these jobs to make a harmonious yearbook for you, the reader . . .

Right: Mr. Hunter, Advisor, and Becky Harter consider the geometrical aspects of a layout.

KISKIZETTE

Capturing the spirit of the school,
 Telling what everyone is thinking and doing,
 Typing and retyping to fit the space within a column . . .
 Layouts to be prepared—Pictures to be taken—
 Expressing opinions through editorial writings.
 Gluing down copy that never seems to stay . . .
 Type face, subscriptions, lithotype, headlines.
 Journalism—personal rewards resulting from public enjoyment.

STUDENT COUNCIL AND N.H.S.

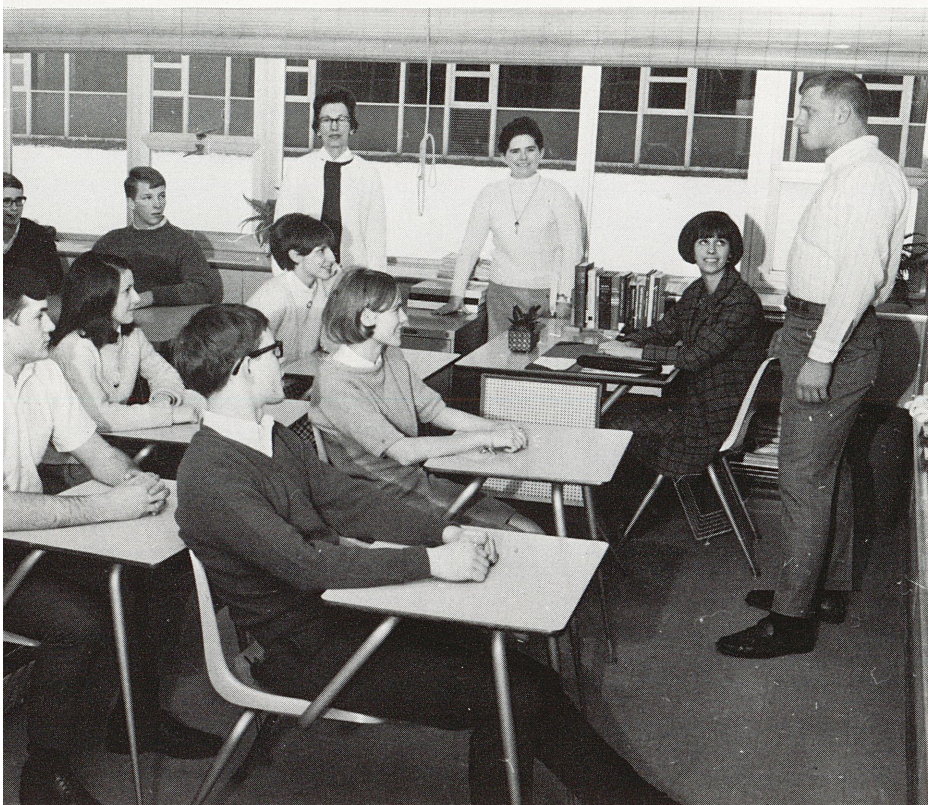

Backs straight, palms wet, stomachs fluttering—
 New N.H.S. inductees file down the auditorium aisles,
 Fifty-eight small candles flicker across the stage,
 Each lit from one of the four larger candles:
 Service—portrayed at the annual assembly honoring the dead beneath the waters at Pearl Harbor
 Leadership—developed through organized planning of the Silver Fantasy
 Character—exemplified by an adult outlook on life
 All these dripping candles, symbolic of a flame—
 A flame compelling each individual to accept, with honor, his own destiny . . .

Recognizing the importance of the officers with a candlelight induction, Giving the student a chance to express his criticisms of the school,
 Promoting the sale of T-shirts and ice cream,
 Awarding a deserving student with a scholarship,
 The liaison body between students and administration . . .

BAND

Becoming a single functioning unit, moving and thinking as one . . .

Combining creativity and originality to produce something new.

Every night after school, the head majorette heard barking commands in the parking lot . . .

Performing a feat never before attempted at Kiski—twirling a fire baton.

Majorettes spending many hours to perfect their routines and delight proud audiences with their skill and originality.

The roll of drums, "Big K!"

Sixteenth notes, demerits, quarter rests, reeds . . .

The shrill whistle of the drum major.

Practicing and memorizing sheet after sheet of music,

Perfect harmony, an artistic outlet for musical talent.

Blue and gold-braided uniforms,

Festivals and concerts, competition, tryouts . . .

Students leave the band room with more than a sheet of music . . .

Responsibility, showmanship, extra hours of service—a talent well developed.

Majorettes: Row I G. Turney—Head, C. Martin—Co-Head, P. Ottengerg—Co-Head. Row II L. Loftus, D. Majersky, M. Tealdo, K. Pisone, J. Dunskis, V. Filo, P. Ferraccio, D. Joyner, E. Zanewicz, C. Stoltz, L. Smith, S. Freedline, L. Morrison, K. France.

CHEERLEADERS—PEP CLUB

Row I: D. Hilty, L. Baranik, S. Lenzi. Row II: N. Kasanicky, S. Pearson, D. Geier. Row III: N. Flamino, F. Gervasi.

Arousing the school spirit with excitement and anticipation of pep assemblies,
Keeping the enthusiasm alive throughout the week with posters, buttons, noisemakers, and pompons,
Presenting the school image at away games,
Learning new cheers through long hours of work and practice, Encouraging the players to do their best for the "Mighty Big Blue" . . .

Above: Exalted by another T.D., Nancy Flaminio explodes with ecstasy.

Kneeling: S. Caratelli, L. Kirkpatrick, J. Ferrara, D. Woodward. Standing: P. DeRose, L. Shirey, M. Strosser, B. Cline.

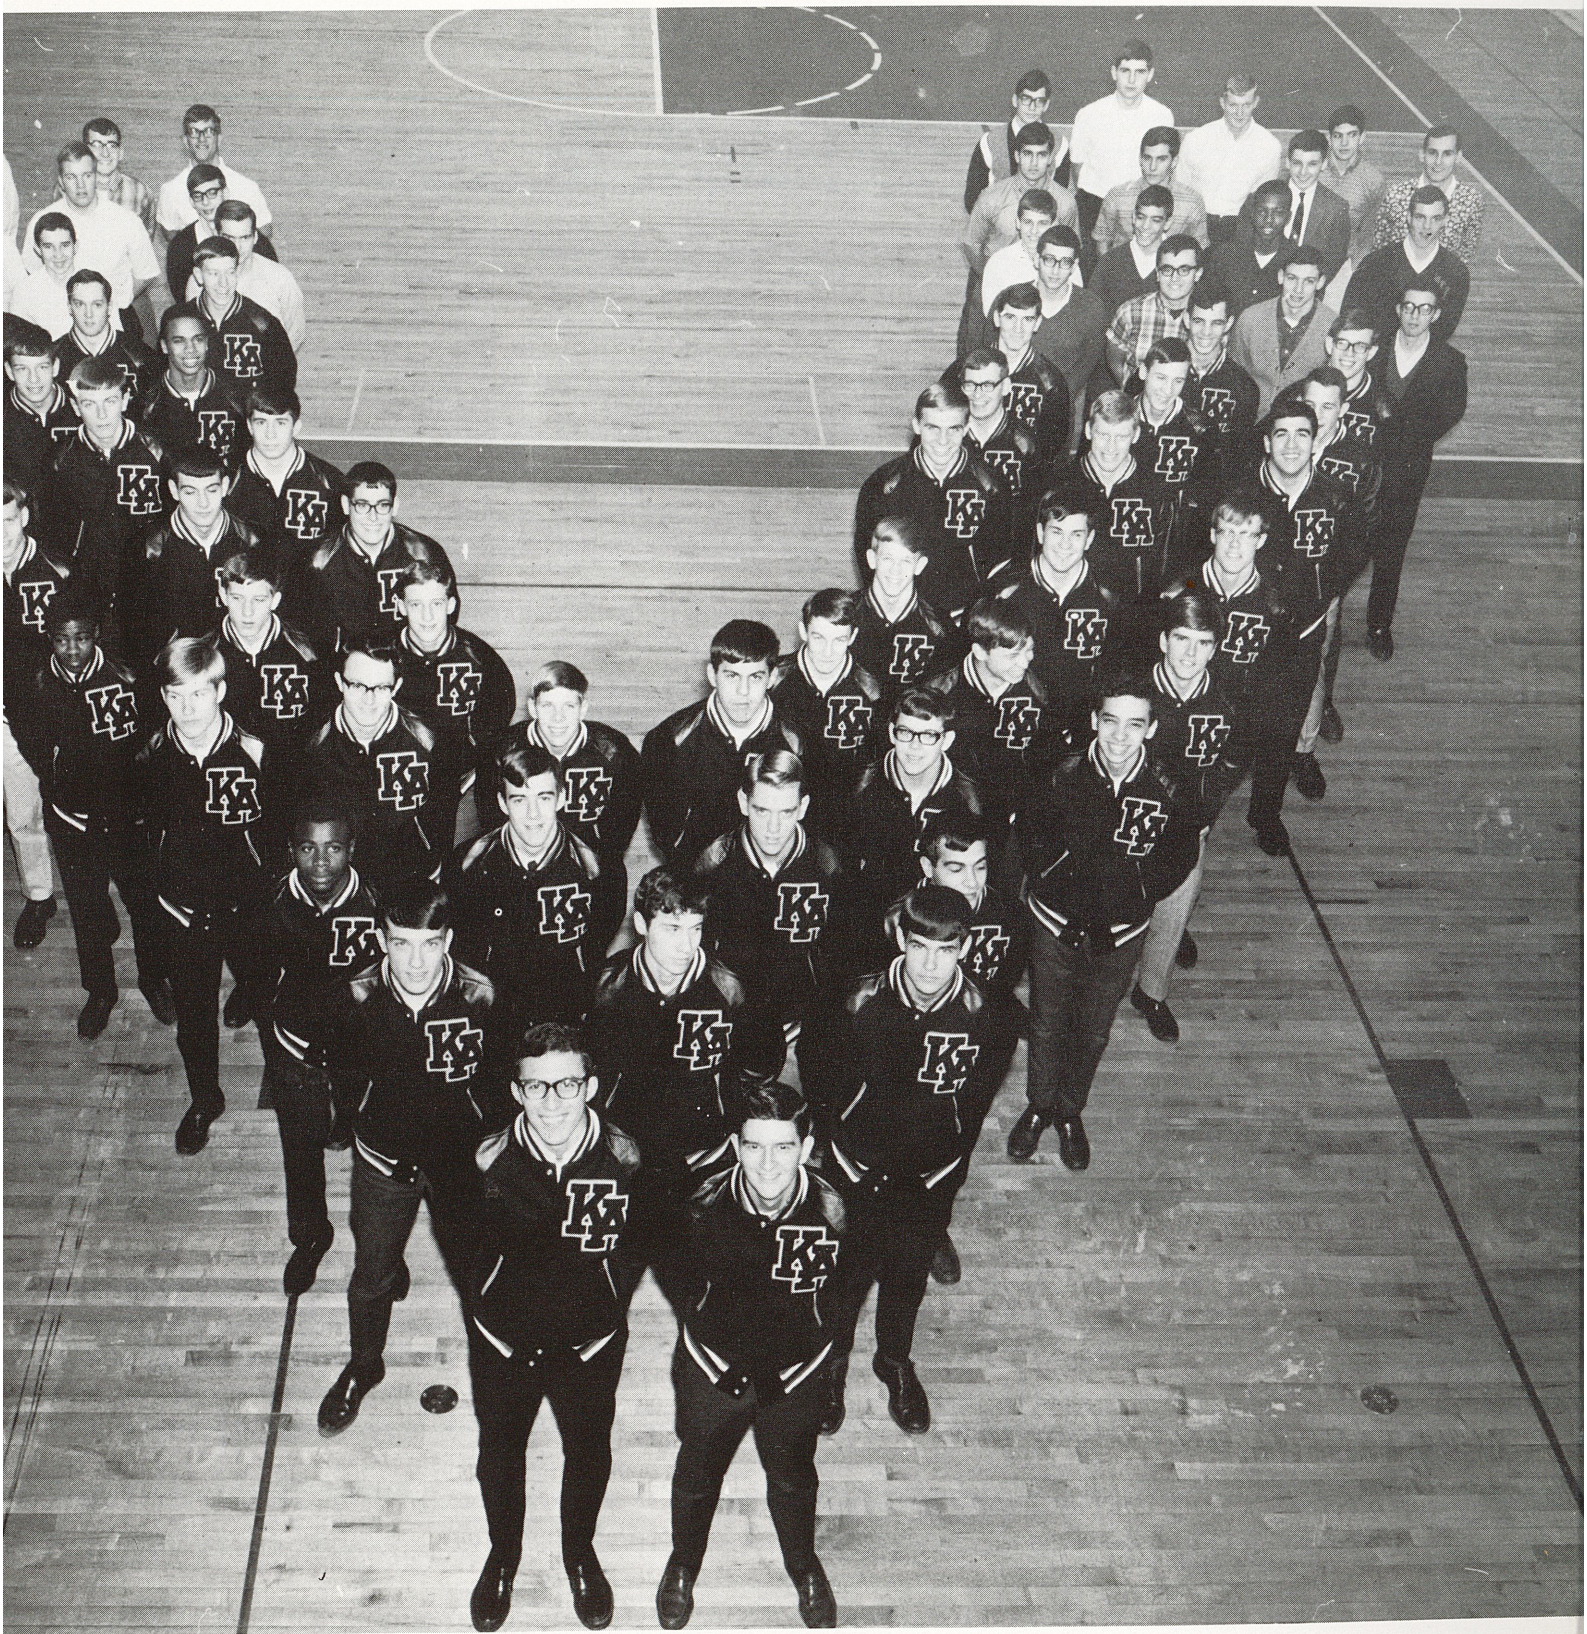

VARSITY AND "300" CLUBS

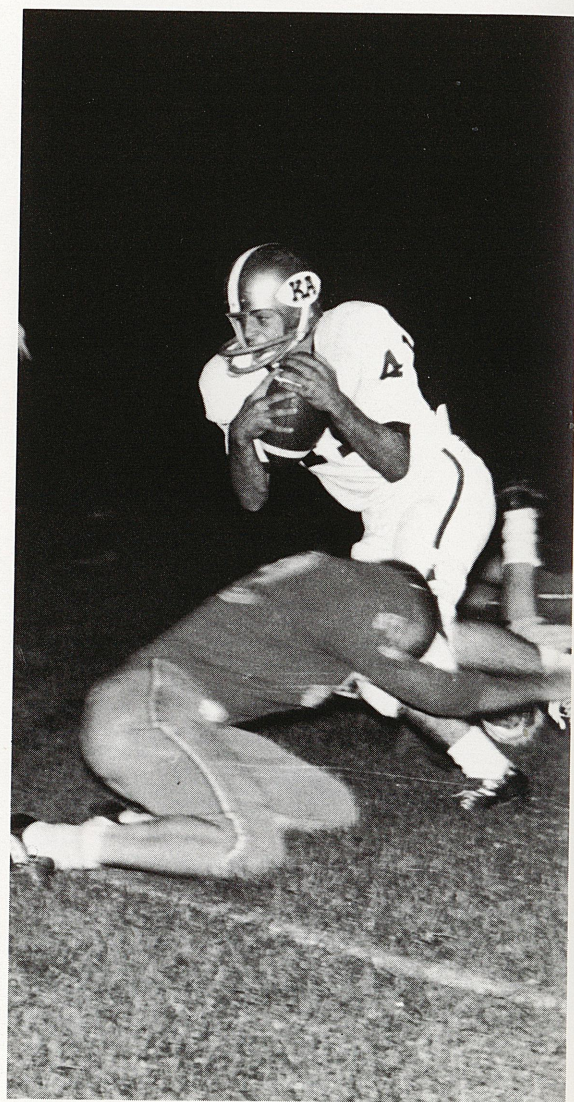

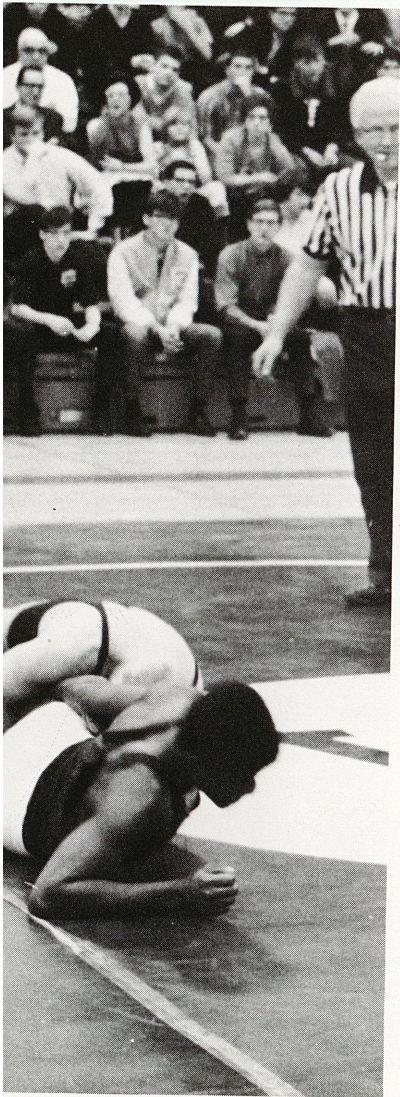

Grouping together those who excel:
Trackmen, linebackers, guards,
backstrokers—
All the athletes of the "Big K."
Earning even more recognition by making the "300" Club
with three letters,
Raising funds to purchase
varsity jackets,
Compiling a football yearbook
for Cavalier fans,
Varsity letters, paints,
ticket sales,
Molding a better sportsman for Kiski's future . . .

Above: Having lettered in three sports, these zealous boys, J. Dykes, R. Mc-Cluske, and D. Booker were granted membership in the "300" Club. Left: Varsity Club officers, W. Smith, J. Dykes, D. Antenucci, and Mr. Dilts, Advisor, proudly admire the "Foothills trophy" before placing it in the trophy case. By capturing the championship with a 9-1 record, the Varsity "grid-iron men" have added more honor to the "Big K." Right: Row I: T. Ruggeri, C. Thomas. Row II: R. White, D. Hill, J. Lang. Row III: L. Banks, B. Nelson, J. Hilty, V. Naccarato. Row IV: D. Emerick, D. Lutz, T. Duppsstadt, J. Cader, R. Bevan, J. Dongiovanni. Row V: C. Nabors, R. Rukas, C. Scalzott, S. Ceraso, D. Risher.

A TIME FOR STRENGTH . . .
A TIME FOR STRATEGY . . .

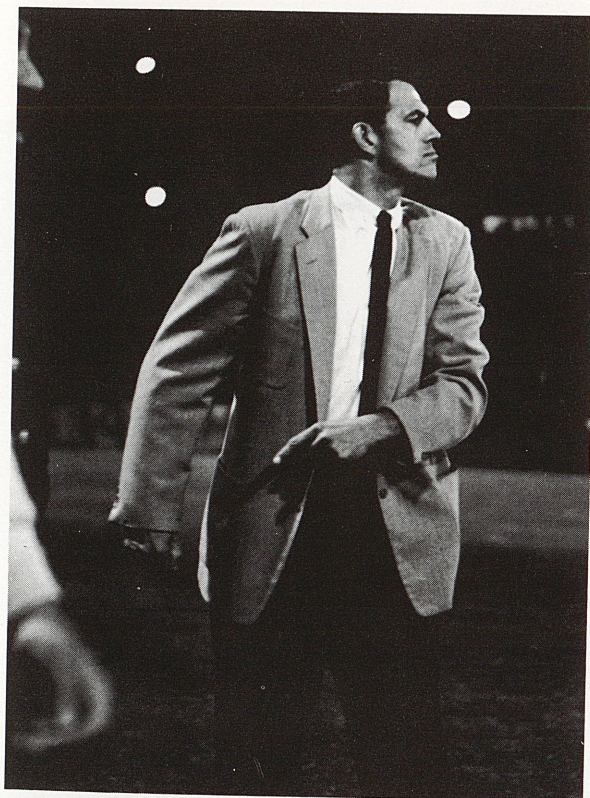

A time to strive for co-ordination—
when body and mind are in perfect balance . . .
A time to achieve discipline and the rewards of strenuous work . . .
A time for developing special skills, techniques, and maneuvers . . .
A time to learn the importance of team-work in achieving a goal . . .

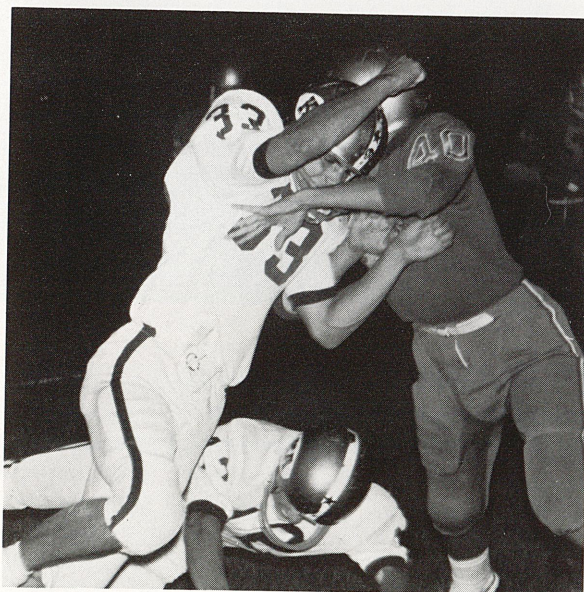

FOOTBALL

Practice—precision . . .
 Shoulders smashing against a sled,
 Spikes biting the dirt Tearing through a paper banner and onto the field—
 Crashing through the defensive line and onto pay dirt.
 Offsides, interception, first and ten,
 extra point.
 A few choice words in the locker room
 at half time.
 Screen pass, offense, defense, fumble,
 penalty.
 A "pig skin" spirals forty yards
 through the air,
 A receiver moves into the open—all alone in the end zone.
 Endurance, drive, Attitude and Quick- ness,
 All leading to the green laurel of a joyous victory,
 Or the black veil of a shameful defeat.

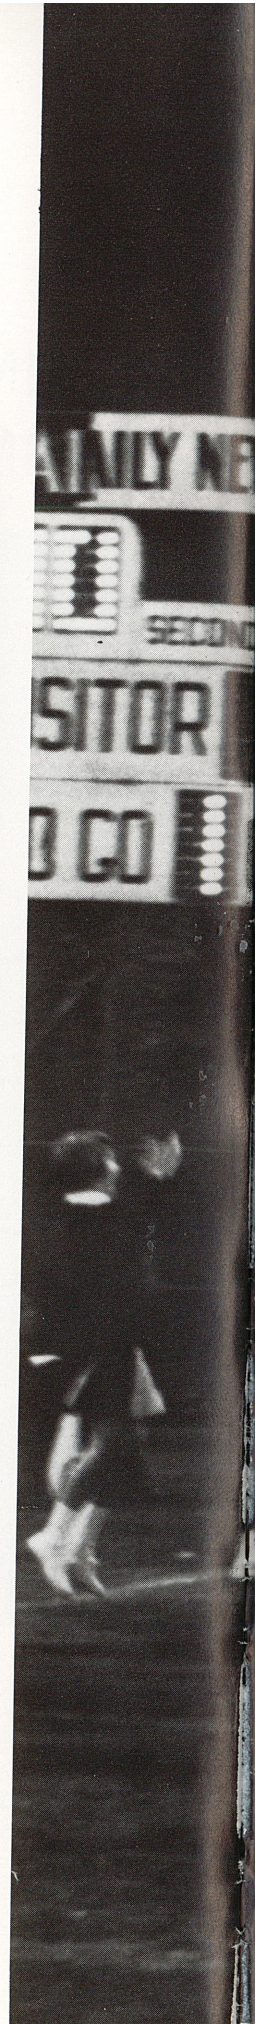

Below: With only two yards to go, Greg Scott heads for the first down in Greensburg territory.

Above: George Boyerinas opens the way for another Big K victory. Right: Cavalier "headhunters" symbolize their offense as they tear through the banner.

Jumpball . . . hustle, hustle Demonstrating quick and accurate reflexes in guarding, passing, and shooting—
 Speed, precision, teamwork Driving to "sink" two points that may insure victory, Tension relieved momentarily as the whistle signals a dead ball . . .
 Foul shot, rebound, lay up Exhaustion of the last quarter tests the players' endurance as they near their goal . . .

A steady pace, long strides
 A rhythmic pounding of the feet
 As a stop watch ticks away the seconds,
 Deep breaths—trying desperately to fill shrunken lungs.
 A dry, parched throat, a pounding head
 The whole body is deadened by the lack of oxygen;
 Yet it moves forward
 Plodding over black cinders and short grasses.
 Miles become meaningless
 As knees bend and legs stretch endlessly . . .
 A final burst of hidden energy as the finish line nears.

WRESTLING

"Switch" "Cross body ride" "Single arm take down" "Roll"

Learning skillful execution of technical maneuvers . . .

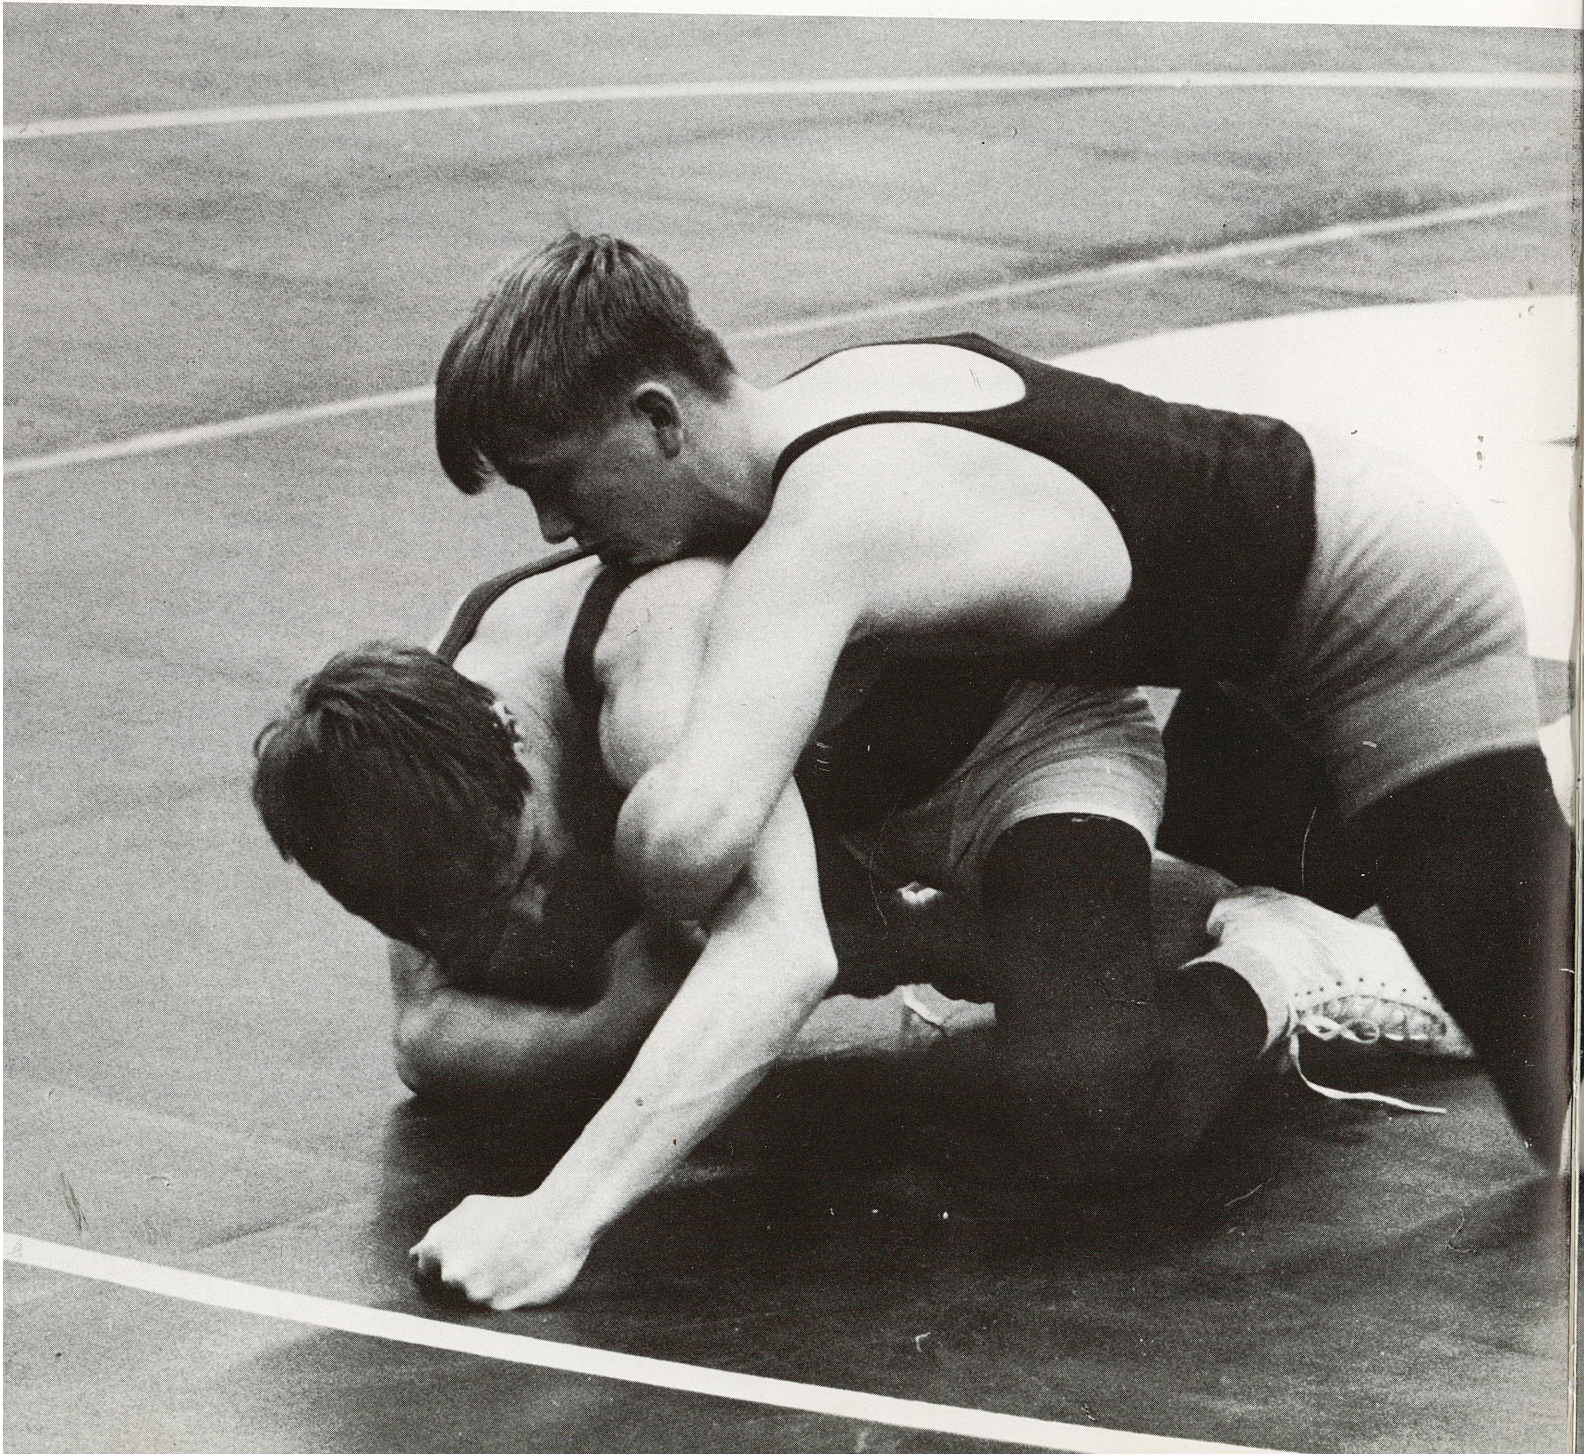

Mastering difficult holds and escapes . . .

Bringing every muscle into play in an effort to achieve speed and skill . . .

Developing necessary qualities—a quick eye, definite action and strategy . . .

Bringing to life the game practiced by the Greeks and Romans . . .

Wrestling—the final test of athletic ability at the ancient Olympics.

Four Kiski tankers, R. Hartman, T. Dupstadt, P. Pugliese, J. Don Giovanni, prepare to dive at a practice session.

Splashing through the water . . .
 Backstroke, breast stroke, free style,
 Muscles—tensed before the first dive—
 Co-ordinated when the body hits the water.
 Striving for maximum speed and perfect style,
 Stamina, energy, endurance:
 Grim determination—pushing each “tanker” on for one more length.

A time for wisdom . . .
A time for patience . . .

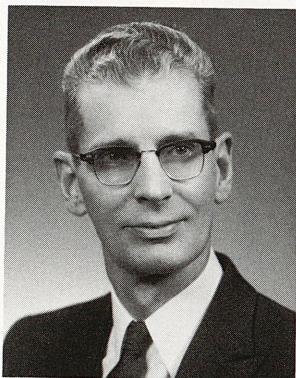

A time for expressing ideas to influence the unexperienced,
A time for caring about an individual and
his future,
A time for sharing knowledge to better another's conception of the purpose of life,
A time for involving oneself . . .

Armed with knowledge, yet deprived of experience,
Facing for the first time a "hostile" class,
Determined to look confident—betrayed by a shaky voice,
The never-ending preparations: lesson plans,
bulletin boards, practicum class Developing a new perspective on the teacher-student relationship . . .
Respecting with humble satisfaction the achievement of classroom rapport—
All these experiences molding together a foundation upon which he, the beginning teacher, will structure tomorrow's world.

Left: Row I: R. Carpenter, M. Young, V. Cuddy, F. Verby, M. Ament. Row II: A. Cuddy, P. Hill, E. Fitzsimmons, A. Hockenbury. Below left: Custodians J. Ploskunak and K. Hepler provide much needed service to the school. Below right: V. Smeltzer, K. Phillips, C. Minniotis, secretaries, provide order in the midst of chaos. Bottom left: Cleaning women: H. Brown, S. Lombardi, N. McAwley, M. Kuric, M. Rojeski, L. Rearick.

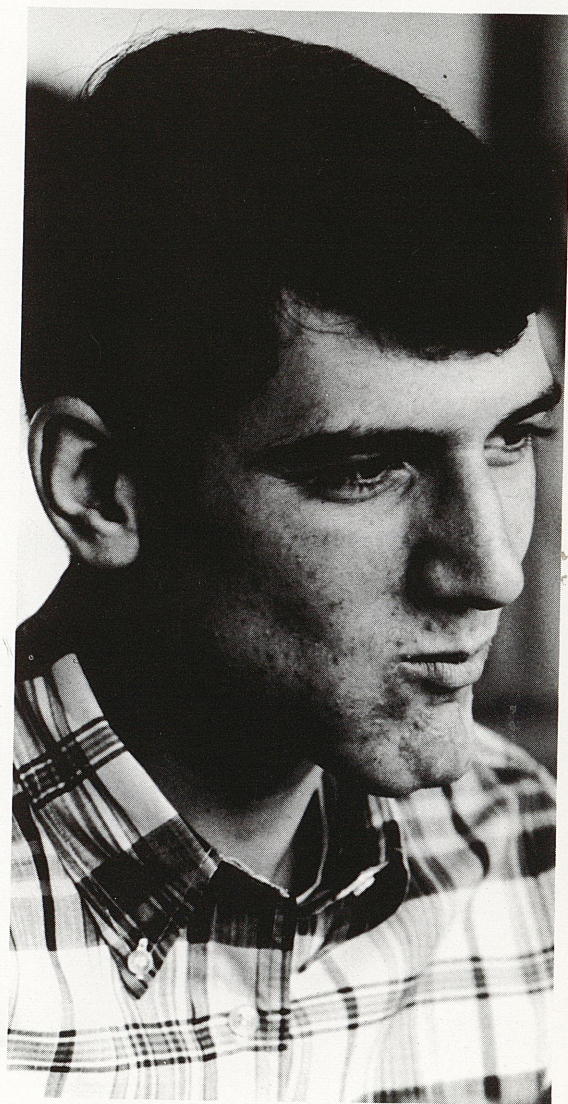

Custodians: Exhibiting a cheerful personality and willingness to help when a calamity arises . . .

Cleaning women: working long, tedious hours to keep Kiski's buildings and campus clean . . .

Cafeteria staff: Providing the student body with nourishing, well-balanced meals . . .

Secretaries: Taking messages, giving late slips, typing manuscripts, and answering telephones . . . Often working after hours to provide a multitude of services for faculty, administration, and student body . . .

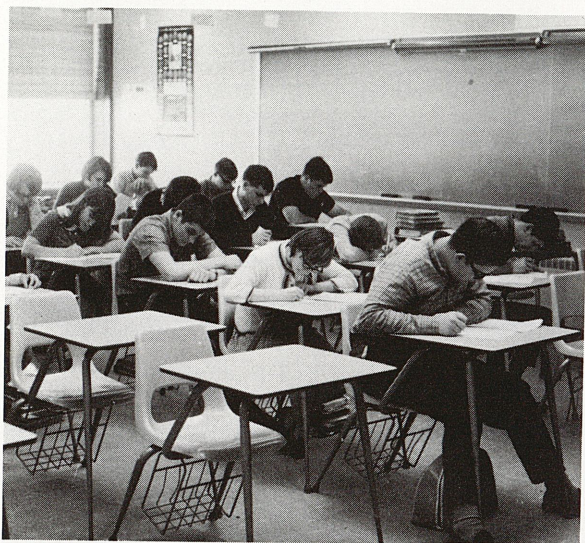

A time for unity . . .

A time for spirit . . .

A time for uniting together to attain a common goal,
A time for enjoying the gentle springtime of youth,
A time for working hard to create an image of the school,
A time for planning, hoping, and achieving before parting into the unknown . . .

SOPHOMORE CLASS

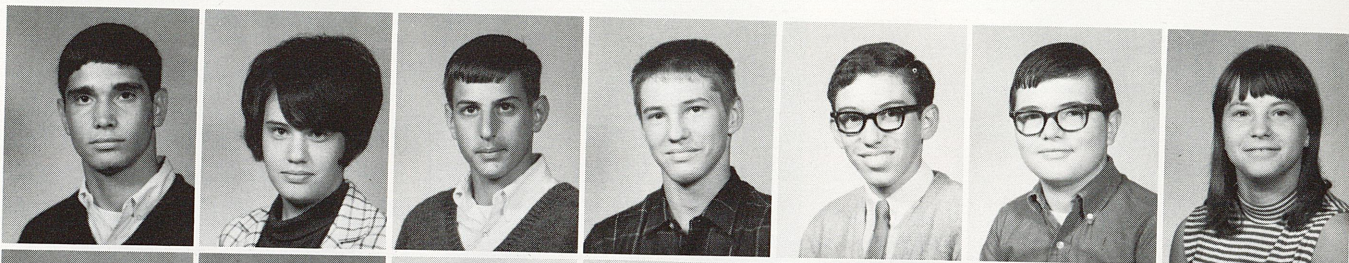

Rick Anderson, Vice President; Margaret Strosser, Treasurer; Mary Beth Shields, Secretary and Jim Allera, President, ponder the future potential of the Class of 1970.

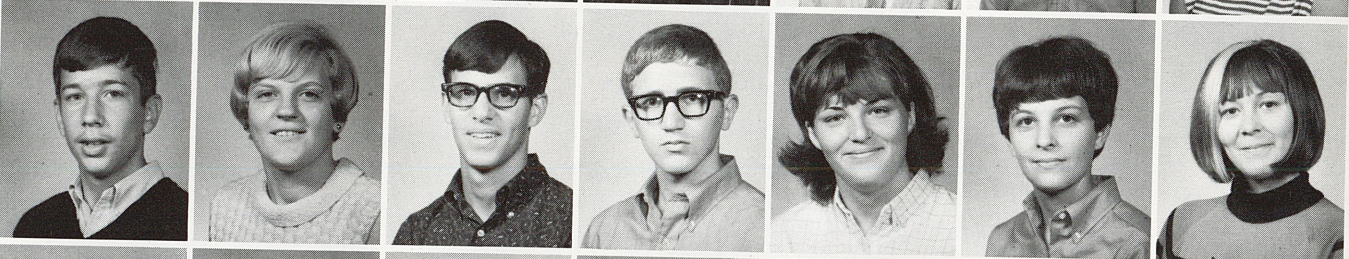

Making adjustments to new teachers, classes, students, and most of all—the buildings. Confused schedules and confused minds add to the excitement of that first day. Looking forward to new and different social activities: Sports, dances, plays, concerts. Facing new and exciting challenges: American literature, biology, geometry. Realizing the future leadership and responsibilities of K. A. H. S. . . .

Leaving behind the terrors of a sophomore and enjoying one year of fun before the responsibilities of a senior.

Making decisions as a class: choosing motto, flower, colors—

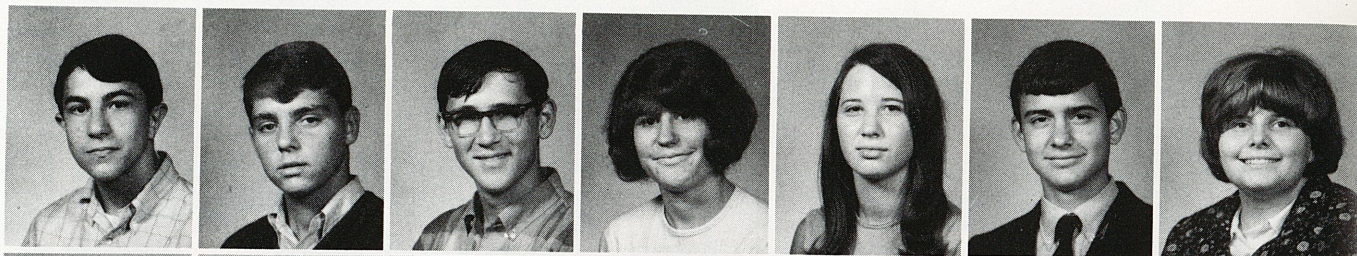

Working hard to help make a successful prom,

Expanding the ideas and knowledge of others as we venture through world literature and cultures.

Learning, grasping, preparing to meet the challenges that await in the senior year . . .

Above: J. Martier, vice president; M. Scott, treasurer; A. Muffley, secretary, and D. Grimm, president, enjoy the outdoors to discuss plans for the prom. Below: Sheila Colledge, winner of the "Betty Crocker Award," demonstrates to her class the essentials for a flaky pie crust.

SENIORS

The patient guidance of Mrs. Crossan, Senior Class advisor, has proved to be a great help to this year's senior class.

Students: experiencing responsibility and self-reliance . . .

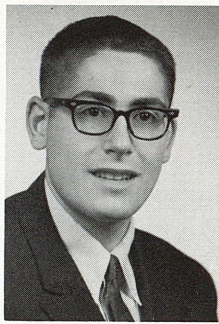

Looking anxiously and a little fearfully toward the future . . .

Setting goals and standards for themselves in order to face what lies ahead . . .

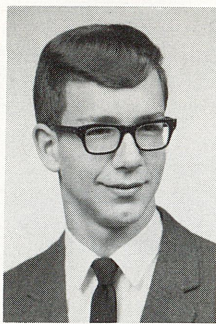

Remembering teachers and advisors—especially those who really seemed to care about the dilemmas each student faced . . .

Showing class spirit—wholeheartedly supporting the senior class play, the prom, the senior banquet. Learning that part of growing up is letting go—leaving the old and looking forward to the new.

A TIME FOR ENDING . . .

A TIME FOR BEGINNING . . .

A time for new hopes to blossom and grow,
A time for enjoying the light, carefree days of youth,
A time for gazing into the future of an emerging life,
A time for remembrances as last days slip by . . .

GUYS AND DOLLS

Above: Nathan (Greg Freilino) and Adelaide (Lucy Schneider) argue about the crap game. Below: Sarah (Debe Collingwood) and Sky (Randy Jasper) enjoy a drink in "El Cafe Cubana".

"The oldest, established, permanent floating crap game in New York!"

"... call it sad, call it funny;
 but it's better than even money that the guy's probably doing it for some doll."
 A humorous tale of life in the gambling houses, street corners, and missions of New York . . .
 Cast members temporarily adopting Brooklyn accents and mannerisms—
 Infinite hours of rehearsal resulting in unique choreography, precise orchestration, and vivid characterizations.
 Months of designing, building, and painting sets . . .
 Climaxing with tears and a standing ovation at the final performance.

AWARDS ASSEMBLY

Left: Steve Matonak proudly receives the Science Department Award from Mr. Stanley. Steve also received the American Physics Teachers Examination Award and a $25 bond from NUMEC. Above: Susan Hill happily accepts a Student Council scholarship from Mrs. Bartlebaugh. The second scholarship was won by Steve Matonak.

As the year terminates, individual student efforts are rewarded,
Generous community organizations recognize deserving students with awards and scholarship—athletes, scholars, musicians
Seeking even more work and recognition through knowledge attained, Enduring competition's heat, exhibiting pride and assurance, stimulating fellow students . . .

BANQUETS AND CONCERTS

Above: Members of the yearbook staff celebrate after a successful year. Left: The class of '68 meets for the annual class banquet. Below: An ambitious band member practices for a future concert.

Represented the year's labor and progress, Stimulating emotions, arousing pride,
bringing forth the best in everyone;
Satisfaction sensed as past events are relived,
A gratifying reward for a job well done.

Bob Maradei and Kathy Horvat plot to steal the stuffed tiger.

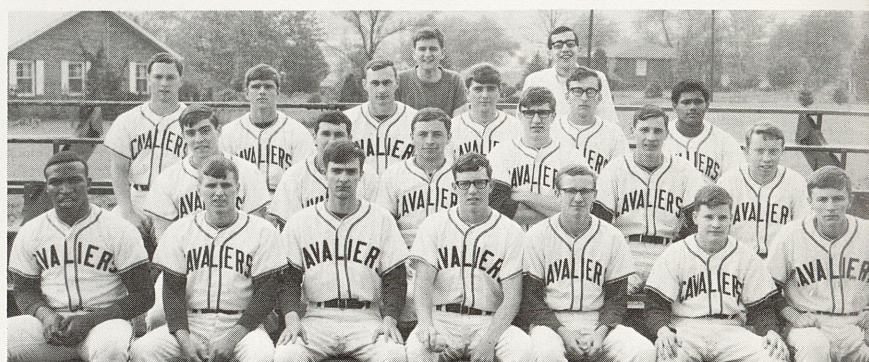

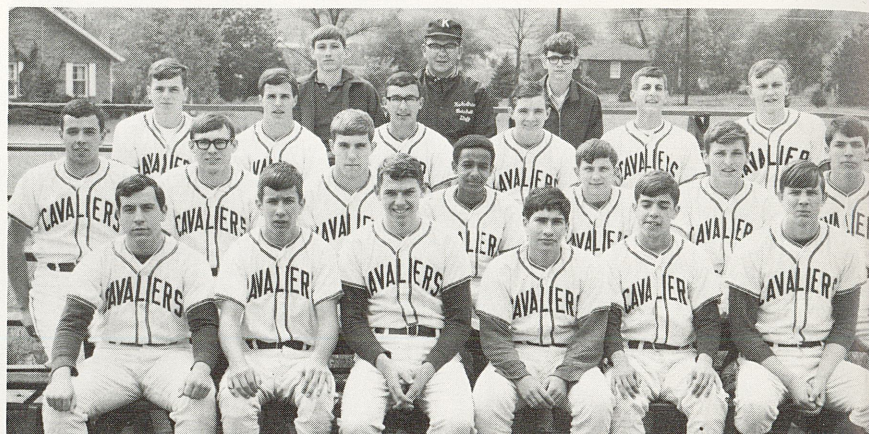

Transported back for an evening to the era of glimmering castles, shining knights, and fairy-tale princes in regal courts, Soft, pastel colors swirling through the huge, ancient ballroom to the music of a very modern Benny Benack, As morning approaches, the pace grows still livelier with the music of "The Electrons" and "Peaches and Herb", With early dawn, the gallant knights and their fair ladies depart from the mystical land of long-ago—

"Don't let it be forgot
That once there was a spot
For one brief shining moment
That was known as Camelot . . ."

BASEBALL

Power, timing, speed, skill—characteristics of a successful baseball team Excitement of a grand-slam home-run;
dismay at a third strike with the bases loaded;

Disappointed by losing in the WPIAL semi-finals at Forbes Field . . . proud of being recognized as one of the four best teams
In Western Pennsylvania.

TENNIS

Combining agility and rhythm with muscular coordination and strength, Sets, serves, backhand, forehand
 Meeting the ball with precise timing—
 Stamina and quick reflexes—
 Possibly the determining factors in victory or defeat
 Coordinating all these skills to make "game point" . . .

TRACK AND GOLF

Outstanding Kiski track men taking honors, crushing opponents, and breaking records,
Hurdles, shot-put, pole vault,
Jogging through the chilling rains of early spring—
Conditioning their bodies to outrun all competitors . . .

Trudging over the miles of grassy terrain,
Standing ankle-deep in sand, Judging the final inches of an all-important putt—
Tees, traps, irons, woods
Steady hands and untiring legs,
Searching in the rough, putting on the green,
Driving in a winning record—
All par for the "Big K" golf team.

Row 1: C. Yakulis, J. Hilty, H. Zabowsky, J. Lang, R. Bevan.
Row 2: R. Kearney, J. Pennington, D. Mangus, D. Mottola, J. Bertino, T. Seban.

Above Left: Coach Veselicky shows Don Emerick how to avoid slicing the ball. Left: Rich Bevan prepares to put the ball on the green in two shots.

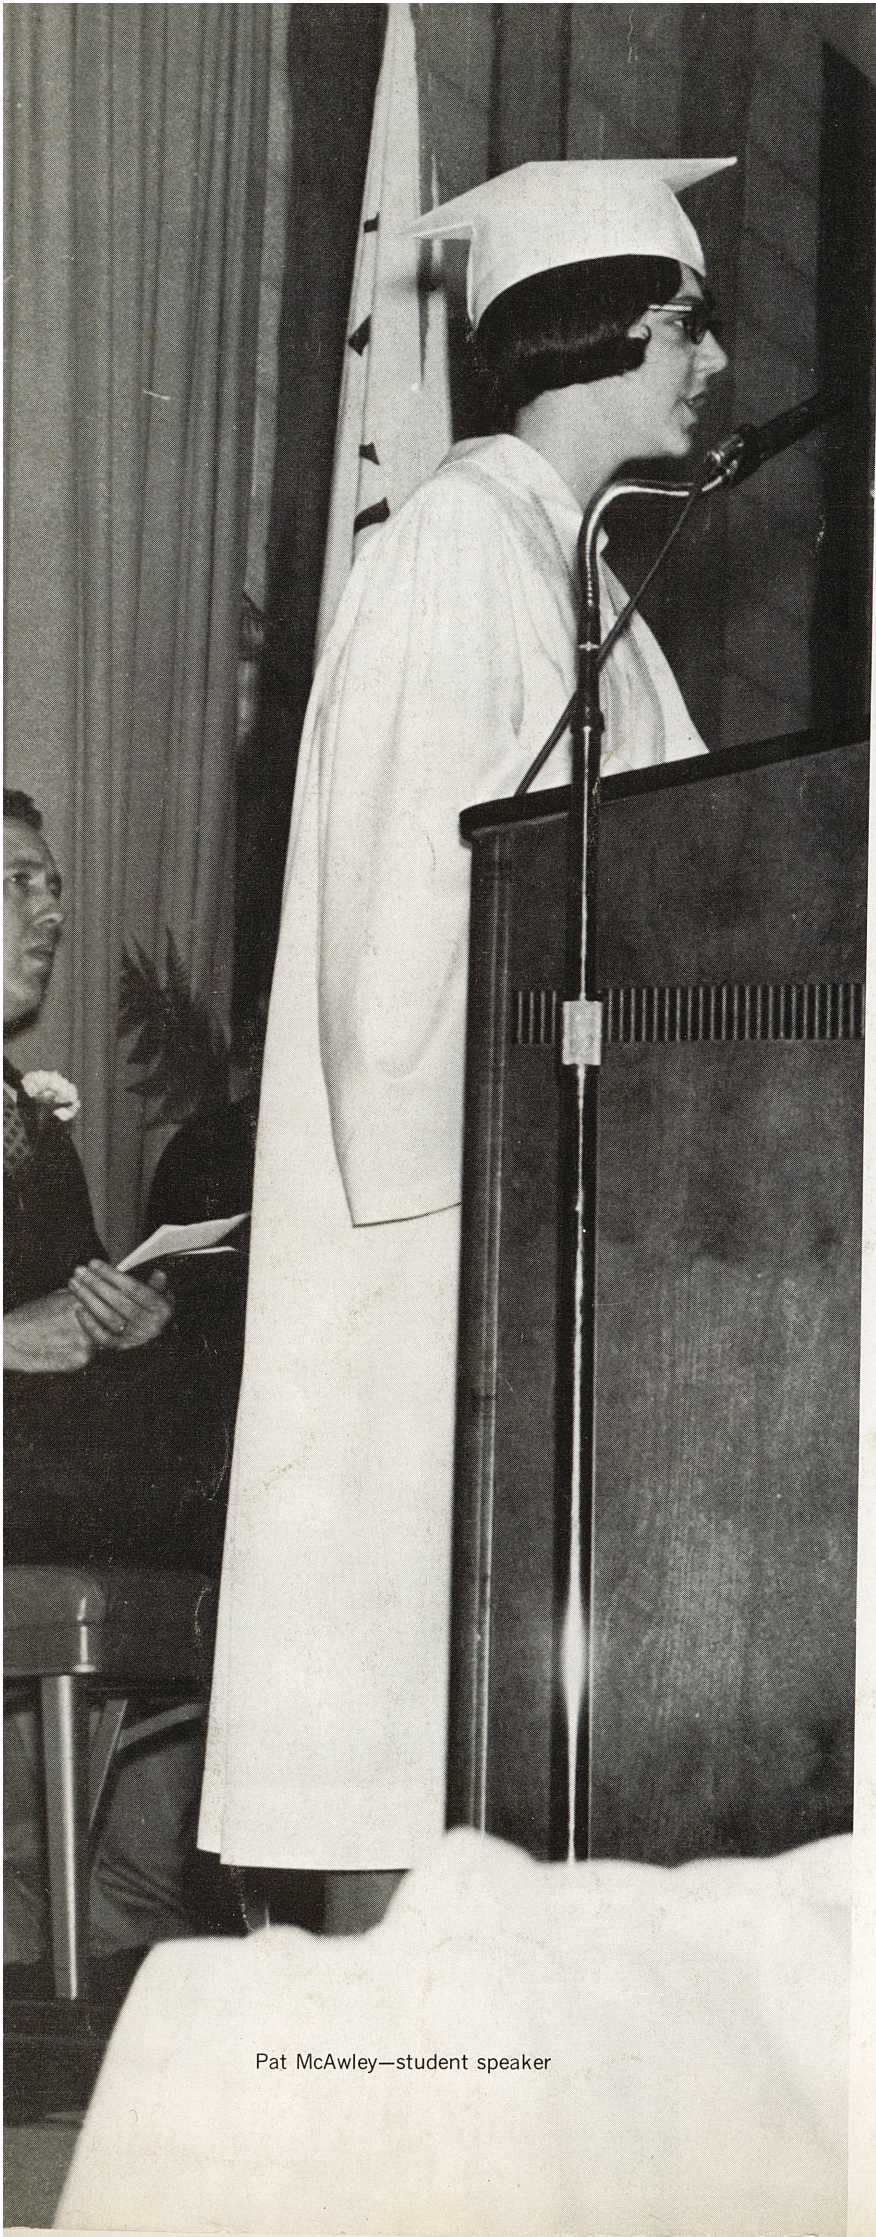

Losing the security of familiar buildings, teachers, and students,
Facing the challenge of a new and broader life,
The touching scene of rows and rows of young people in blue and white,
Sharing memories of past experiences,
Held together by a common bond for one last fleeting moment—“ . . . Slowly now we turn away, Sad, yet proudly we depart . . . ”

GRADUATION

Pat McAwley—student speaker

"some men see things
as they are and say why.
i dream things that never were and say, why not."
